

Elvis Presley Assaults The King

Kinger was a teacher a porcelain psychiatrist thriving in another bedroom her name contradiction and she the driver of the rebel faction an heinous orange mentions a Civil War kills the Children of King the one-room houses throw a party he not shatterproof an exquisite French dress wound around Kinger and King she needs to be scared but she won't be anything but a lady in the United States that needs to lie in bed and masturbate she never finished her lemonade candles and lanterns oxygen and brainpower Queen and children he'd make an awesome father breath sinking in his chest half a dozen blank notebooks you mentioned a Civil War?

a Father and King he won't be
